

Brain
POP™

SCIENCE

FEATURED

WINTER HOLIDAYS

MATH

SIGN IN ENGLISH

SUBSCRIBE

HEALTH

the more you know, the more you know

Brain
POP®

"BrainPOP.com is my classroom homepage."

E. Usher
Crabapple Middle School, GA

PARENTS

TEACHERS

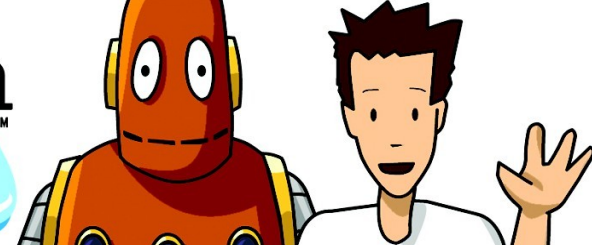

WELCOME!

SOCIAL STUDIES

Brain
POP™

BRAINPOP EDUCATORS

Tips, Tools, & Resources

www.brainpop.com/educators

JANUARY 2012—Branches of Government, U.S. Constitution, Miranda Rights, Women's Suffrage, Trials, and the Supreme Court are just some of the topics you'll find in this month's Spotlight: The Law. For K-3, there's Local and State; Rights and Responsibilities; and President. Plus, take advantage of our related lesson plans and work a few games into your classroom. Titles like iCivics' "Argument Wars," "Law Craft," and "Executive Command" - all accessible on GameUp - are the perfect complement.